

General design notes.

We are trying to achieve a very clean and crisp look, with balanced use of white space and using highlights and images rather than lots of text.

Designers may select any image from www.dreamstime.com. Use a screen shot of the sample image for design layout purposes, and if you are the winning design then we can purchase the license for the image to use in the final draft of the material.