About the BCBA

The Brooklyn Center Business Association is a voluntary organization of businesses, community representatives, and residents who have joined together for the purpose of promoting the civic, commercial and economic development of the community. The BCBA joins with a number of organizations to support the community and each other while providing a platform for businesses to work together toward common goals. Being a member of the Association means investing in the future of your business and the Brooklyn Center community.

Our Mission

The Brooklyn Center Business Association promotes the area's commercial and industrial activities by:

- Uniting businesses with local government, civic organizations and interested individuals.
- Advocating business-related issues most beneficial to our members and the community.
- Supporting retention, expansion, and attraction of companies and workforce.

Brooklyn Center's strategic location, diverse economy and business-friendly incentives make it easy to see why the city continues to draw a variety of industry. The advantages and highlights of the area include:

- A ready workforce with people of varying job skills.
- Metro transit access and easy highway access for those who commute.
- Affordable housing.
- Top notch medical and dental clinics.
- A clean, well maintained city with outstanding parks.
- Strong education programs including a variety of schools with the option of community based charter programs.
- A golf course and community center with state-of-the-art workout equipment.
