Have Fun Today!

What will you do today?

Each day, clients are picked up by van, from their respective sober living houses, and taken for a different local adventure(s) activities such as: hiking to magical locations in the Malibu Mountain Park, waterfall picnic hikes, ocean beach and cliff walks , a daylong ropes course adventure, hike to an old movie set, bike down a canyon to the ocean and picnic. Horseback trail rides to beautiful vistas of the Pacific Ocean, rock climbing and rappelling with a great pacific view in the background, sea kayaking off the Channel Islands and white water rafting on the Kern River. Hikes are led by staff that has considerable knowledge about local plants, indigenous people and survival skills as well as many years working in the recovery and recreation therapy field.
